

Everyone loves a good success story.

Insights helps unlock the narrative within your numbers.

Providing clarity using vivid data visualization and insightful analytics, we help you discover how decisions, changes, and feedback contribute to your company's challenges and successes.

Our Insights suite addresses three key drivers of success in an organization:

- Performance: Workrite Achieve
- Engagement: Workrite Connect
- Leadership: Workrite Elevate

Use them alone or in combination to meet your specific needs.

No matter what those needs are, our tools are easy-to-use, providing data you can actually use without taking much time.

Each module utilizes gamification techniques, making engagement with the platform more fun for everyone.

Shape your story for a high-performance culture

Our platform simplifies and automates difficult administrative tasks.

Performance management should be focused on achieving goals and improving outcomes, not tedious administrative tasks.

Our technology automates the cumbersome tasks of performance data collection so managers can focus on meaningful conversations instead of chasing down status updates and filling out forms.

Better performance through better processes.

With our automated data collection for 1:1s, managers know exactly where to focus to help develop their people.

Managers are no longer required to remember achievements or challenges from the past year all at once. The data tells the story.

Transparency and accountability drive higher performance, allowing teams to grow stronger and more productive through regular feedback.

Engagement is more than a survey, it's a company's story.

Continuous listening follows the story of how your company is growing and changing.

Guided by easy-to-use mobile technology, we can capture the core sentiments of your people week after week, so you'll always know the health of your company's culture.

Our custom analytics dashboards will give you full view into which areas of the business need additional support, and which are thriving.

Engagement as fast as 1 minute per week.

Once per week, your employees will receive a notification to swipe 3-5 cards about job satisfaction, intent to stay, growth opportunities, and more.

We also gamify the swipe experience, incentivizing participation, making engagement fun for everyone.
